Autism and Communication Service and CAOT.

AET (Autism Education Trust): Good Autism Practice (North Somerset Schools)

Outline

The AET's 'Good Autism Practice' 2 half-day course is designed to give practitioners a solid understanding of autism combined with practical strategies and resources for all practitioners working directly with autistic pupils in mainstream and specialist settings.

Trainers: Nikki Morgan-Nash and Kate Campbell

Description

This course is suitable for practitioners working with school-age pupils on the autism spectrum in both mainstream and specialist services. It will be delivered online over 2 half days.

Outcome

This training will enable practitioners to develop their knowledge and understanding of good autism practice and provide guidelines and activities to support practitioners to reflect on and improve their own practice.

Audience

North Somerset schools

Booking Information

North Somerset delegate cost £93.00 per person.

This training will be delivered virtually via Microsoft TEAMS, therefore all delegates must be booked on the course with their own valid school email address. A meeting invitation will be sent prior to the training dates.

ESSENTIAL: Delegates must also register with AET and book a 'Ticket' to access the free course resources (ONE ticket per booking). Once delegates have booked and paid for their place on the SSE website, a separate email will be sent with details on how to complete the process. Delegates should expect a further 3 emails from AET: Confirmation of course details; Order Confirmation (no second charge) and AET Welcome to Autism.
