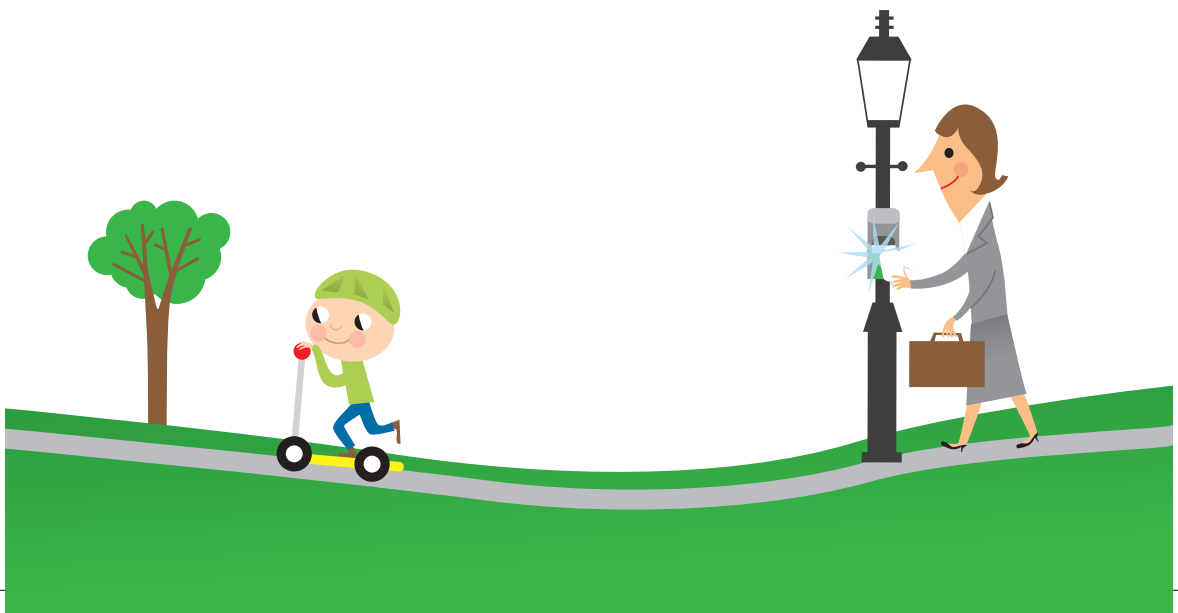
Beat the Street is run by Somerset County Council, Sedgemoor District Council, Somerset Clinical Commissioning Group and Somerset Activity and Sports Partnership, funded by the National Lottery via Sport England and managed by Intelligent Health.

How to play

Beat the Street is a fun, free real-life walking and cycling game to play where you live, work and go to school. Earn points and win prizes by tapping special cards onto sensors known as Beat Boxes as you travel around and get active. Individuals, schools, workplaces and community groups can play safely together. See how far you can go by 4 November.

It's COVID-19 safe!
Played outdoors in household or school bubbles with contactless cards or fobs, Beat the Street improves physical and mental health and boosts our body's natural immunity to fight off viruses, including COVID-19.

Playing the game is simple, just follow these steps:


1. Visit Beatthestreet.me to learn more about the game.
2. Pick up a game card and map from a distribution point in October. Kids will receive a game fob from their school and a game card for a parent/carer.
3. Register your card or fob online at beatthestreet.me to be eligible to win prizes and join a team.
4. From 7 October walk, run, scoot or cycle round your area earning points for every Beat Box you visit.
