

Relationships and Sex Education Training for Primaries, Middles and Secondaries

Lucy Sicks, LIFEbeat and Alice Hoyle (author of Great Relationships and Sex Education) will co-deliver a training workshop on creative approaches to Relationships and Sex Education curriculum and delivery.

Training Goals:

- To gain information and ideas to help develop your curriculum for Primaries and Secondaries
- To learn how to create a safe learning environment for RSE teaching and learning
- To explore creative activities and approaches to RSE delivery
- To share and connect with colleagues
- To join a LIFEbeat learning network for sharing resources and best practice

"A thoroughly enjoyable course that has an impact on you long after you leave the venue! Thank you to the LIFEbeat Team and also to the professionals from Somerset CC/NHS who delivered quality information on a variety of issues, all very interesting and informative," LIFEbeat Training Participant.

Dates available:

13th May – Primary Schools

27th May – Secondary & Middle Schools

Both sessions will run from 9 am – 4 pm.

Click here to book your place

For any enquiries, please contact Ana Pascual on ana@lifebeat.co.uk or call us on the LIFEbeat phone 07557 349 005

This course is suitable for PSHE Leads, Governors, Teachers, Pastoral Care Teams, TAs and Support Staff.

The training will be delivered on a Zoom platform and will incorporate a combination of PowerPoint presentation, discussion, and activities in break out rooms.

There will be no charge made for Somerset teaching staff attending this training.