We are looking for an experienced and qualified SENCO to join our SEN Team. This is an exciting position which would suit a highly motivated person to work in a supportive environment. This is a vital and important role and as such requires a SEN practitioner who is both highly motivated and dedicated. The main responsibilities would be as follows:

- Determine the strategic development of special educational needs (SEN) policy and provision.
- Be responsible for day-to-day operation of the SEN and coordination of specific provision to support individual pupils with SEN or a disability.
- Provide professional guidance to colleagues, working closely with staff, parents and other agencies.
- The SENCO will also be expected to fulfil the professional responsibilities of a teacher, as set out in the school Teachers’ Pay and Conditions Document.

This post will require a criminal background check via the disclosure procedure. The trust is committed to Safeguarding pupils and operates a Safer Recruitment Policy.

Visits to our school are welcome; please telephone to make an appointment on 01935 474538.

Please apply in writing by completing the application form available from the website www.prestonprimaryacademytrust.co.uk

Applications should be returned to the Preston Primary Academy Trust by email or at the address shown above.

Bridgwater College Academy is looking for a SEND teacher to work within their specialist autism resource base from September 2019. The Polden Centre is a vibrant and creative specialist ASC provision and as a result of increasing numbers, we are keen to employ an enthusiastic, flexible and inclusive practitioner as part of the team.
As a special educational needs (SEND) teacher you will plan and deliver personalised curriculums to ensure students reach their full potential. The students in the Polden Centre all have EHCPs with a diagnosis of autism or social communication and sensory needs.

We are looking for someone who:
- is committed to inclusion and enthusiastic about working with students with SEND
- has the skills to work collaboratively within a team
- can build positive relationships with students and parents;
- is highly motivated and willing to embrace or bring new ideas to the Centre;
- is committed to developing their own skills.

If you decide to join our team then we can offer:
- a nurturing, inclusive specialist environment
- a strong and supportive team of professionals;
- an academy with high aspirations for all of its students and staff;

Visits to the Polden Centre are highly recommended and welcomed. Contact Polden Centre Lead Sarah Wharton for further details and visits.
